Tipi Erected At Thacker Pass - Law Enforcement Issues Final Warning

(Orovada, NV) - Dorece Sam, an enrolled member of the Fort McDermitt Paiute-Shoshone Tribe, spoke during a Facebook livestream on Friday, saying “Mother’s Day is coming up. This here is our mother - Mother Earth, and we want to protect her. We want to stand in unison with everybody. Bring your medicines, bring your prayers and good thoughts. Grandmother says this is the start of a new camp. It is called (Ox Sam) Newe Mogonee Momokonee Camp, meaning Indian Women’s Camp.” Ox Sam was one of three members of the Paiute tribe who survived the 1865 massacre.

PeeHee Mu’uh (Thacker Pass) is traditional, unceded land of the Paiute and Shoshone. It is also the location of the lithium mining operation owned by Lithium Americas Corp. The territory is not part of any treaty lands ceded to the United States; thus Paiute, Shoshone and other tribal nations assert the land is still legally their country.

The tipi was erected to support a ceremony which will last four days. Upon completion of the ceremony, a camp will continue to press Indigenous land claims to the unceded traditional territory; which is currently occupied illegally by the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and leased to Lithium America.

Well done, you did it!

The ceremony was authorized by Indigenous Grandmother Josephine Dick, a Paiute Elder from Fort McDermitt Reservation; along with Dean Barlese, an Elder of the Pyramid Lake Paiute-Shoshone; and Dorece Sam. Supporters are invited to come and pray with them; to come and stand with Mother Earth. Most of Josephine’s remarks were in her Native Paiute language and were translated on site. She prayed for relatives from all over, from sunrise to sunset, to come support and join in prayer.

Dean Barlese said, “Like my auntie said, we’d like supporters to come out and pray with us. Stand here and be strong with us. We just need more people to be out here. We can stop this. We have the tipi here standing up. We have the fire going. We’re just asking for supporters to come pray with us. No matter if you go to church. Locals can come, the ranchers can come if you oppose this. They’re going to take your water, they’re going to dry it up.”

Also present is Lakota attorney and activist Chase Iron Eyes, who spoke during the Facebook livestream; saying that he came “At the invite of our elders, on behalf of the Lakota Nation and some of the spiritual leaders back home… they’re sending their voices here for our relatives. They sent the canvas for the tipi. It meant a lot for us to help put this tipi up for ceremony.”

These direct actions come at a time when Indigenous sovereignty and land rights are under attack in the United States Supreme Court. Indigenous Nations of Turtle Island are currently awaiting the verdict for Haaland v. Brackeen, which threatens to up-end the Indian Child Welfare Act.

As for PeeHee Mu’huh, former President Barack Obama attempted to preserve the traditional site from further mining based on the fact that the land is home to the sage grouse, an endangered species. To the Paiute, Shoshone, and other regional tribes - PeeHee Mu’huh is a place of reverence; where two historic massacres occurred. Attorney Will Falk, representing Reno-Sparks Indian Colony, says that ancestral remains are scattered throughout the site of the proposed mining operation.

COVID-19 Vaccine for Kids

There is no way to know how COVID-19 will affect your child, even if they do not have underlying health conditions. Just like adults, children can get very sick and experience long-term complications from COVID-19. The vaccines help prevent your child from getting very sick or being hospitalized from COVID-19.

Getting your child vaccinated against COVID-19 can provide you with greater confidence for them to participate in childcare, school, and other activities.

Things to Know

- The vaccines are safe and effective.
- COVID-19 vaccines can be taken with other routine vaccines.
- Children under 12 receive a smaller dose than teens and adults.
- Children who had COVID-19 should still get vaccinated.

Common Side Effects

- Pain at Injection Site
- Fever / Headache
- Tiredness
- Chills
- Body aches
- Nausea / Dizziness

COVID-19 Vaccines for Adults

COVID-19 is still around and there’s no way to know how it will affect you. It’s important to get vaccinated.

COVID-19 vaccines are safe and effective, and can prevent serious illness, hospitalization, and death from COVID-19. It is recommended that all eligible ages stay up to date on their COVID-19 vaccines, which includes getting booster doses when eligible. The vaccines are your best protection against COVID-19.

COVID-19 Vaccines are Safe & Effective

As of July 2022, over half a billion doses of COVID-19 vaccines have been safely administered to adults, children, pregnant persons, and people with underlying health conditions in the United States. We know the COVID-19 vaccines are safe and effective because they:

- Were developed using science that’s been around for decades
- Meet standards for safety, effectiveness, and quality
- Are the most monitored in history

Common Side Effects

- Pain at Injection Site
- Fever / Headache
- Tiredness
- Chills

Students from four different schools met Thursday morning on May 18, 2023 for a friendly competition at the Reno-Sparks Indian Colony to show off their Paiute language skills. The Paiute Bowl has been around for a number of years and is a highlight for students participating in the Washoe County School District’s Paiute language classes.

The different schools that attended included two from Washoe County – Spanish Springs and Reed high school – as well as two who aren’t – McDermitt School from Humboldt County and Yerington High School.

For two hours, students competed to see who could speak the most Paiute in front of tribal elders and teachers.

Fawn Hunter, WCSD’s Indian education specialist said the district’s world language program offers two credits for graduation, including an option for Paiute. What’s different for students who choose this as their language course is an end-of-the-year competition.

“We get our schools together that are involved in taking the Paiute language class and bring them to a space in order for them to compete and show off what they have learned about in the semester,” Hunter said.

The competition included matching the correct phrase with what was shown on a screen, translating Paiute questions into English, and listening to tribal elders ask questions in Paiute and answering them in both Paiute and English.

“I think our community has a big involvement, takes part in our classroom during the school year so we have elders coming in or we have different partnerships,” Hunter said. “Reno-Sparks Indian Colony Culture and Education Department comes in and does some cultural stuff. Different people grasp onto or latch onto what we’re doing in the classroom so it is a

While this was a friendly competition, there were awards to be handed out at the end. Students from McDermitt took fourth place, Yerington secured third place, Spanish Springs came in second place, and Reed High School landed in first place.

These kinds of gatherings are important to the community, Hunter said, and help to keep the culture alive and well for future generations.

For next year, the organizers said they hope to have more teams compete and have more tribal leaders present.

WCSD will offer Paiute language courses in three different high schools next year: Reed, Spanish Springs and Wooster.

The curriculum doesn’t just teach the language but also goes into the history of Nevada bands as well as Native American boarding schools.

The Paiute language program is available to any student looking to learn a language and offers the same level of language credit as foreign languages.

Washoe County was the first school district to offer Northern Paiute language classes in 2013. University of Nevada, Reno followed with its first Paiute class in 2019.

James Thomas, and Suzanne Thomas on their way to the National Indian Health Board Heroes In Health Awards Gala 2023, in Anchorage Alaska.

Both are members of the RSTHC Health Board, represented the RSTHC Board and RSIC Community in Anchorage, Alaska, May 1 to May 5. Both attended the many informative presentations that were sponsored by the National Health Board to bring back ideas and challenges that are happening in Indian Country across the country in the coming year.

We were treated to a Native Alaskan Culture Night which included a dinner featuring Native Foods from the Alaskan Tribes. Plus a program that featured dancers from Tribes of Alaska. The next day we were taken on a tour of the Alaska Native Health Campus that was huge, that looked more like a College Campus. On Thursday night we attended the Dinner and awards ceremony. Our own Stacy Briscoe of the RSIC Diabetic Department was given an award for her outstanding job of running our Diabetic Department. She was the first non-native ever to receive an award by the National Indian Health Board. It was a very inspiring moment to be present to see our own receive an award. I thank all those that made this trip possible for Suzanne and myself.

Every June 15, we acknowledge World Elder Abuse Awareness Day. There is “No excuse for elder abuse.”

Elder Abuse can happen to anyone, people we know and love can become victims of abuse. Most cases of elder abuse go unreported or are not reported. Elders often don’t want to admit they are victims of abuse. They don’t want to admit their family member is capable of treating them with disrespect.

The most common types of abuse are:

- Emotional Abuse: Verbal attacks, threats, rejection, isolation which causes mental anguish or distress to an older
- Sexual Abuse: Contact that is forced, coerced or threats upon an older, including those unable to consent
- Exploitation/Financial Abuse: Theft, fraud, misuse of money to gain control of an elder’s assets
- Neglect/Abandonment: Discretion or refusal to care for an older by those whom have a duty to care for an older
- Spiritual Abuse: Causing harm to an elder’s spiritual well-being by not taking them to ceremonies, taking their ceremonial items or threatening to destroy their spiritual items to gain control

There are many types of abuse, however these are the most common. World Elder Abuse Awareness Day provides an opportunity for communities to promote a better understanding of abuse and neglect of older persons by supporting plans of action as a public health and human rights issue. The RSIC Senior Program asks everyone to acknowledge and support World Elder Abuse Awareness Day.

IN THE MATTER OF:
WAYLEN MYLES REUBEAN SHAW
DOB: 03/19/2013
GABRIELLA M.L. SHAW,
DOB: 09/25/2013
WESTON ENNIA BONTA
DOB: 01/06/2017

Case No.: CV-GR-2023-0007
SCHEDULING ORDER AND ORDER
FOR SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION

Filed: May 2, 2023

This matter comes before the Court on Petitioner’s Petition for Appointment of Permanent Guardianship with Ex Parte Motion to Extend Temporary Guardianship and Summons by Publication filed on May 3, 2023.

Petitioner is seeking notice of the petition for permanent guardianship by publication because the whereabouts of the Children’s mother is unknown. The Court assumes that the purpose of the motion is to satisfy summons and service requirements of Title IX, Section 110-303(e) of the RSIC Law and Order Code.

Petitioner is seeking the Court to extend the Temporary Guardianship set to expire on May 2, 2023, to allow a permanent guardianship to replace it. Petitioner has not shown good cause for why a petition for permanent guardianship was filed only a day before the Temporary Guardianship was set to expire. The Temporary Guardianship was granted in part based on the unavailability of the Children’s mother. The mother’s unavailability remains the same in Petitioner’s new petition for guardianship. Temporary guardianships are limited to 90 days in duration, Title IX, Section 110-303(a). The primary purpose of temporary guardianships is to allow the Court to determine if a permanent guardianship is necessary. In our case the current need for a permanent guardianship is the same as the need was for the temporary guardianship, i.e. unavailability of the Children’s parents. No rationale has been stated for why a petition for permanent guardianship was not filed shortly after the Temporary Guardianship was granted, especially in light of the fact that service and notice to the surviving parent was problematic. Even if the Court had discretion to extend a temporary guardianship, which it has not done in the past, to do so would result in a policy of ex parte relief for matters of urgency created by the parties themselves which would not be conducive to attentive legal actions by such parties.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, Petitioner’s Ex Parte Motion to Extend the Temporary Guardianship is DENIED. Good cause appearing, Petitioner’s Motion for Notice by Publication is GRANTED to the extent that publication of a summons to appear for the Petition in this matter satisfies the summons and service requirements of Title IX, Section 110-303(e) of the RSIC Law and Order Code.

Furthermore, it is ordered,
1. This matter is set for a hearing on Petitioner’s Petition for Permanent Guardianship on July 11, 2023, at 1:30 p.m.

Tribal Council Retreat Addresses Land and Housing Issues

Submitted by Candace H. Stowell, AICP, Planning and Community Development Department

On Saturday, April 22, the Tribal Council held a retreat with staff at the Inter-Tribal Council of Nevada Conference Room in downtown Reno. The purpose of the Council Retreat was to understand how existing land and probate ordinances interact with the existing housing programs. More specifically, the Council and staff discussed the following issues:

Land and Housing Issues

- Homeowners submitting applications for land assignments when Housing Master Lease is still in effect
- Lack of information for community members when Mutual Help Master Leases expire
- Homeowners no longer living on the Colony
- Homeowners with more than one lot
- Multiple land assignment applications for the same lot and lack of information on status of land assignments
- Conflict between Land Assignment Ordinance and Probate Ordinance
- Enforcement of Land Assignment Agreements
- Homeowners without deeds
- Homeowners without land assignments or residential leases
- Vacant Homes and vacant lots
- Developed residential lots with illegal structures used for residential use

Council Priorities

At the end of the retreat, the Tribal Council directed staff to address the following land and housing priorities:

1. Establish a Real Estate Office and real estate office position
2. Enforce the Land Assignment Ordinance regarding improvements and residency
3. Prepare status reports on each mutual help phase as well as private homes for Tribal Council review
4. Address the issue of vacant homes
5. Address the issue of community members with more than one home

Staff from the Planning and Community Development Department, Housing Department, and Attorney’s Office are working to address these priorities. For any questions on residential land assignments or residential leases, please contact the Planning Department at 775-785-1363 or cstowell@rsic.org

RSIC Abandoned Vehicle Rescue

Do you have unwanted, unloved, and downright grumpy old vehicles making a home in your yard?

We’d like to adopt them in an effort to find them a forever home!

If you happen to have more than one of these vehicles taking up space, it could be costly to you to let them stay with you instead of letting them go, which is the humane and ecofriendly thing to do.

If these vehicles don’t find loving homes, they face a rather unfortunate fate. They may end up towed away, which can result in significant fines and fees falling upon their previous owners. So, by rehoming your vehicles, you not only save yourself from potential headaches but also extend a helping hand to these unloved four-wheeled friends.

Ready to rehome? Please contact us before July 1, 2023 to take advantage of this free rehoming offer! Contact the RSIC Planning Department:
